

BREATHE. LIVE.FIGHT.

“...and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet - a vast army...” Ezekiel 37:10

Sons. Brothers. Husbands. Fathers.

Men, are you experiencing all the life Jesus has for you, or do you oftentimes feel overwhelmed, oppressed and alone? Sadly, men can feel more hopeless, helpless and harmless than bold, courageous and dangerous for good. Is this all you can hope for, or is there more in God's plan for you?

There is more for you.

Wholehearted Men invites you on an expedition into God-breathed wholeheartedness.

Understand the epic adventure you've been called into, and the enemy strategy set against you to keep you from experiencing all the life Jesus has for you. Come alive and learn how to fight for all that God has for you.

This is not a men's retreat – it's an advance. We've been retreating for far too long.

Join us. Breathe. Live. Fight.
